1 (JUNE 12, 2023, 9:04 A.M., OPEN COURT.)

2 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: Criminal Action 15-CR-164,
3 United States of America versus Ali Shukri Amin.

4 THE DEFENDANT: Good morning, sir.

5 THE COURT: All right. Good morning.

6 Who's here for the government?

7 MR. BIRNBAUM: Your Honor, I'll stand in. Marc
8 Birnbaum for the United States.

9 THE COURT: Okay. The probation officer has asked for 10 some computer monitoring in the case, and apparently you don't 11 agree to that?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Well, before -- first, before I start,
13 (speaking in foreign language) in the name of the one true
14 god -- merciful -- merciful.

15 THE COURT: Could you come to the podium, please.

16 THE DEFENDANT: Sure.

17 My issue is not with your computer monitoring, sir.
18 But I feel that in order for me to properly articulate my side,
19 it would be probably best for me to have some kind of counsel
20 of some sort because I'm not an expert in the law. So I do
21 have a motion that I prepared to request counsel, if I could
22 submit that to you.

23 THE COURT: Who represented you in this case before?

24 THE DEFENDANT: I had a privately retained attorney
25 whose name was Joseph Flood, who is no longer my acting

1 attorney. He was only retained for the criminal proceedings up
2 to the conviction, the sentencing, the conviction, and I don't
3 have the financial means to hire another attorney at this time.

4 THE COURT: I don't understand why you need an
5 attorney. I -- everybody that I put on probation has some kind
6 of computer monitoring with their probation officer, and I'm
7 going to do that in any event.

8 Is there something in particular about what the 9 probation officer is asking for here that creates a problem for 10 you?

11 THE DEFENDANT: Well, I actually already have computer
12 monitoring, sir. I'm already on computer monitoring. As far
13 as I understand, and I believe that the probation officer sees
14 it from a different perspective, it's more -- he explains that 15 he wants to specify or to make more detailed the restrictions
16 that were already in your sentencing memorandum, whereas I feel 17 like they are specific enough. And what he's requesting is 18 actually a broadening.

19 For example, in my sentencing memorandum, in 20 addition to my term of probation, I was given the special terms
21 of financial monitoring and computer monitoring, for which so
22 far in the short term of my probation I have endeavored to try
23 to meet these -- these specifications. My probation officer
24 would like to expand, and the way that I understand it, the 25 terms to include other things such as not having particular

1 materials, not meeting with particular individuals, so on and
2 so forth.

3 I am not sure as to whether or not those terms are 4 necessarily constitutional, and this is why I requested, or 5 which I have made the request to you to have some kind of 6 representation. If not, then at least I would like to seek a
7 continuance to give me some time to go to a law library and to 8 attempt to do some kind of research so I can prepare a response
9 to the government's request to broaden the terms of probation.

10 THE COURT: All right. What's a month from today?

11 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: July 17th.

12 THE COURT: July 17?

13 All right. I'll continue this case until July 17,
14 and I will deal with it at that time. You take a look at it
15 and present to me what you want to present.

16 THE DEFENDANT: Sure. Thank you, sir.
